PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Happy March,

Spring has Sprung! It's an exciting season as everything is starting to bloom as are our PTSA activities!!

We are thrilled to finally be able to volunteer and see the inside of our beautiful new school and excited host our Spring Fundraiser Event. It's been a long awaited 2 years and we can't wait to connect with the school & community, in person.

We hope you can grow with us this Spring, enjoy this colorful season and have a strong finish to the school year.

Please feel free to reach out if you'd like to get involved with any upcoming events.

We'd love to have you join our team.

As Always, GO Knights!

DIVERSITY, EQUITY, INCLUSION

As we collectively "celebrate" Women's History Month...let us remember that Black women, didn't gain the same voting rights in the U.S. until 1965! That's 46 years AFTER "ALL American Women" (aka: White Women), fought for & gained voting rights in 1919/1920. That's 4+ decades later & only 57 short years ago.

Asian Women didn't gain voting rights until 1952-but still before Black women. Asian Women/immigrants gained voting rights who arrived in the U.S. after enslaved African peoples (that were forced here centuries prior) before Black women.

Native/Indigenous Women: never? Perspective.

Not All Women Gained the Vote in 1920

Everywhere You Go
by Angelina Vaughn

Everywhere you go, there will be people in hunger or in pain, filled with sorrow and emptiness and eyes that tears stain.
Everywhere you go, there will be people who are isolated,
waiting, and frustrated.
Waiting, waiting, waiting.
To be out of quarantine and the rooms that are suffocating.
More and more everyday
It seems like the overwhelming sadness is here to stay.
Everywhere you go, be a glimmer of hope,
Bring resilience when people are at the end of their rope.
Everywhere you go, be kind to those around you,
And others will be too.
Everywhere you go take care of others and put yourself in their shoes,
Knowing that everyone has different points of views.
Everywhere you go spread equality,
And together we will be
A world that makes other people have a feeling of belonging
In a new age that is dawning, and waking up to see
That there is a person they are meant to be.
Everywhere you go know that you're not alone
And from problems like yours other people have grown.
Everywhere you go, be a leader and make the world a better place
And follow the dreams you dared to chase.
You don't need to have a cape or superpowers, it's just the little things
That brings
Joy and hope to people around you
That will make their skies of grey turn to blue.
A smile, a compliment, or time to say hello
Could possibly make someone's heart go aglow.
The world isn't going to change if you do nothing,
But if you strive for becoming
Someone who wants to change the world,
Then do small things with love starting with the people around you.
